

GENEVA CONFERENCE ON AFGHANISTAN – OPEN PROCEEDINGS WITH LIVE WEBCAST

KABUL, 18 November 2018 - Media interested to follow the Geneva Conference on Afghanistan, 27-28 November 2018, will be able to view all proceedings through a live webcast at <http://webtv.un.org/> and also follow developments at #GVAfghanistan2018.

The webcast will cover all side events taking place on 27 November in the Palais de Nations' Council Chamber, as well as the main conference itself on 28 November.

The conference programme, as well as the schedule for side events and meetings along with information about the event, is available at <https://unama.unmissions.org/geneva-conference-afghanistan>.

The closing press conference is scheduled to take place at 18:00 CET (21:30 Kabul local), Wednesday 28 November, and will also be webcast live.

Photographs from the conference will be available on <https://www.flickr.com/photos/unisgeneva/> and <https://www.flickr.com/photos/unama>. Images may be downloaded and reproduced with standard acknowledgement.

For media outlets interested in broadcast-quality video, there will be periodic updates made available by FTP, with email alerts indicating new footage. Please contact Spokesperson-UNAMA@un.org if you wish to request more information on footage.

* * *

UNAMA supports the Afghan people and government to achieve peace and stability. In accordance with its mandate as a political mission, UNAMA backs conflict prevention and resolution, promoting inclusion and social cohesion, as well as strengthening regional cooperation. The Mission supports effective governance, promoting national ownership and accountable institutions that are built on respect for human rights. UNAMA provides 'good offices' and other key services, including diplomatic steps that draw on the organization's independence, impartiality and integrity to prevent disputes from arising, escalating or spreading. The Mission coordinates international support for Afghan development and humanitarian priorities.