The situation in Afghanistan

Germany: draft resolution

The situation in Afghanistan

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 73/88 of 6 December 2018 and all its previous relevant resolutions,

Recalling also all relevant Security Council resolutions and statements by the President of the Council on the situation in Afghanistan, in particular resolutions 2189 \(2014\) of 12 December 2014, 2210 \(2015\) of 16 March 2015, 2274 \(2016\) of 15 March 2016, 2344 \(2017\) of 17 March 2017, 2405 \(2018\) of 8 March 2018 and 2489 \(2019\) of 17 September 2019,

Reaffirming its strong commitment to the sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity and national unity of Afghanistan, and respecting its multicultural, multi-ethnic and historical heritage,

Welcoming the efforts by Afghanistan in the framework of the Transformation Decade (2015–2024) to consolidate its sovereignty through strengthening a fully functioning, sustainable State in the service of its people, with the goal of becoming fully self-reliant,

Recalling the importance of the development of the institutions of the Government of Afghanistan, including at the subnational level, the strengthening of the rule of law, democratic processes and civil society, the fight against corruption, the continuation of justice sector reform, the promotion of the peace process, including women's full and meaningful participation in the peace process, without prejudice to the fulfilment of the measures introduced by the Security Council in its relevant resolutions, in particular resolutions 1267 \(1999\) of 15 October 1999 and 1988 \(2011\) of 17 June 2011, and of an Afghan-led transitional justice process, the safe, voluntary, dignified and sustainable return of Afghan refugees and internally displaced persons, the promotion and protection of all human rights, including the rights of women and girls, interfaith and intrafaith tolerance and the advancement of economic and social development,

Reaffirming the long-term partnership between the Government of Afghanistan and the international community based on their renewed mutual commitments, as laid down in the Geneva Mutual Accountability Framework, as agreed upon at the Geneva Conference on Afghanistan held on 27 and 28 November 2018, and recalling the long-term commitment of the international community to Afghanistan, reaffirmed at the Geneva Conference, with the aim of continuing to strengthen national ownership and leadership,

Reaffirming also the commitment of the international community to continuing to support the training, equipping, financing and development of the capacity of the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces, including as agreed upon in the Summit Declarations of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on Afghanistan, and honouring the memory of the men and women of the Afghan and international security forces who have given their lives in the course of duty,

Reiterating its serious concern about the security situation in Afghanistan and the urgent need to tackle the challenges facing the country, in particular the region-based violence, attacks and all forms of terrorist and criminal activities and violent extremist activities of the Taliban, including the Haqqani Network, as well as Al-Qaida, Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) (Da'esh) and their affiliates, in particular ISIL-Khorasan Province, and other terrorist groups, and foreign terrorist fighters,

Expressing its deep concern about the continuing high level of violence in Afghanistan, especially the number of civilian casualties, including the continuing high number of women and children killed and maimed, urging an immediate reduction in current levels of violence, condemning in the strongest terms all terrorist activity and all violent and unlawful attacks and killings, recalling that the Taliban, including the Haqqani Network, as well as Al-Qaida, Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) (Da'esh) and their affiliates, in particular ISIL-Khorasan Province, and other terrorist groups, and foreign terrorist fighters, are responsible for the significant majority of the civilian casualties, including those involving humanitarian and medical personnel, in Afghanistan, and calling for compliance with international humanitarian law and international human rights law, as applicable, calling upon all parties to armed conflict to take all measures necessary and appropriate to ensure respect for and the protection of civilians and humanitarian and medical personnel, as well as aid and humanitarian and medical facilities, and urging that credible reports of civilian casualties be thoroughly investigated and steps taken to avoid such incidents,

Welcoming the efforts made by the Government of Afghanistan to promote an Afghan-led and Afghan-owned peace process, and calling upon the Taliban to respond to the call for peace from the people and the Government of Afghanistan,

Welcoming also the achievements of the National Unity Government in political, economic, governance and social reforms and in the management of the transition, underlining the need to preserve past achievements, and urging further improvement in this regard, in particular to address poverty and the delivery of services, stimulate economic growth, create employment opportunities, tackle corruption, enhance transparency, increase domestic revenue and promote and implement commitments on human rights, especially women's full and equal enjoyment of these rights, the rights of the child, the rights of persons belonging to minorities and the freedom of expression and opinion, as envisaged in the Constitution of Afghanistan, including for journalists and in accordance with obligations under international law,

Emphasizing the important role of regional cooperation to promote long-term peace, security, prosperity, sustainable development and human rights in Afghanistan,

Welcoming the inauguration of the new parliament on 26 April 2019, noting the holding of the presidential election on 28 September 2019, which marked another important step towards the consolidation of democracy in the country, commending the people of Afghanistan for their courage and determination in defying terrorism and violence to take part in that national process, as well as the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces for the effective manner in which they provided security for the elections, and condemning in the strongest terms all terrorist activity and violent attacks aimed at disrupting the elections,

Emphasizing the central and impartial role of the United Nations in promoting peace and stability in Afghanistan, expressing its appreciation and strong support for all of the efforts of the Secretary-General and his Special Representative for Afghanistan in this regard, expressing its appreciation also for the work of the United Nations Assistance Mission in Afghanistan in accordance with Security Council resolution 2489 (2019), and stressing the important role of the Assistance Mission in seeking to further improve the coherence and coordination of international civilian efforts, based on the “One United Nations” approach and guided by the principle of reinforcing Afghan ownership and leadership,

Recalling with appreciation the visit of the Security Council to Kabul in January 2018 in the context of peace and security, and welcoming the joint high-level visit by the Deputy Secretary-General and other senior United Nations officials to Afghanistan in July 2019 in the context of women and peace and security,

Welcoming also the reports of the Secretary-General and the recommendations contained therein,¹

1. Pledges its continued support to the Government and people of Afghanistan as they rebuild a stable, secure and economically self-sufficient State, free of terrorism and narcotics, and strengthen the foundations of a constitutional democracy as a responsible member of the international community;

2. Encourages all partners to constructively support the reform agenda of the Government of Afghanistan, as envisaged in the Afghanistan National Peace and Development Framework and the Geneva Mutual Accountability Framework, so as to secure a prosperous and democratic Afghanistan, focusing on strengthening the constitutional checks and balances that guarantee citizens’ rights and obligations and implementing structural reform to enable an accountable and effective Government to deliver concrete progress to its people;

3. Supports the continuing and growing ownership of reconstruction and development efforts by the Government of Afghanistan, emphasizes the crucial need to achieve ownership and accountability in all fields of governance and to improve institutional capabilities, including at the subnational level, in order to use aid more effectively, and reiterates in this regard the importance of effectively implementing mutual commitments of the Government of Afghanistan and the international community on a reciprocal basis, as underscored in the Geneva Mutual Accountability Framework;

4. Notes that the funding commitments made at the Brussels Conference on Afghanistan will end in 2020, and underlines, in the light of the continued acute development and humanitarian needs, the necessity for a ministerial pledging conference to take place in late 2020 to set frameworks both for sustained assistance for the remainder of the Transformation Decade (2015–2024) to address this need and for future donor assistance to Afghanistan beyond 2024;

5. Recalls with appreciation the adoption of the Geneva Mutual Accountability Framework, as reflected in the communiqué adopted at the international Geneva Conference on Afghanistan, which underscores the importance of effectively implementing mutual commitments of the Government of Afghanistan and the international community on a reciprocal basis;

6. Emphasizes that threats to stability and development in Afghanistan and the region require closer and more coordinated cooperation as well as greater coherence and complementarity of approach between countries of the region and the international community, for the long-term peace, security, prosperity and sustainable development of the country, and underscores in this regard the standing of Afghanistan as a platform for such international cooperation;

Security

7. Recognizes the commitment of the international community to supporting the training, equipping, financing and development of capacity-building for the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces throughout the Transformation Decade, as agreed upon most recently in the Brussels Summit Declaration on Afghanistan in 2018, including through the Resolute Support Mission, as welcomed by the Security Council in its resolution 2189 \(2014\);

8. Welcomes the pledges and commitments made, most recently at the Brussels Summit of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, held on 11 and 12 July 2018, to continuing national contributions to the financial sustainment of the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces until the end of 2024, to sustaining the Resolute Support Mission and to continuing to deliver training, advice and assistance to the Afghan security institutions, including the police, the air force and special operations forces;

9. Recognizes the positive impact and ongoing importance of commitments made by the European Union as part of the continued international support for security, development and stability in Afghanistan;

10. Reiterates once again its serious concern about the security situation in Afghanistan, stresses the need to continue to address the threat to the security and stability of Afghanistan caused by the region-based violent extremist and other illegal armed groups and criminals, including those involved in the narcotics trade, the Taliban, including the Haqqani Network, as well as Al-Qaida, Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) (Da'esh) and their affiliates, in particular ISIL-Khorasan Province, and other terrorist groups, and foreign terrorist fighters, expresses concern about the serious threat posed by the presence of foreign terrorist fighters, reiterates in this regard its call for the full and serious implementation of measures and the application of procedures introduced in relevant Security Council resolutions, in particular resolutions 1267 \(1999\), 1988 \(2011\), 1989 \(2011\) of 17 June 2011, 2082 \(2012\) and 2083 \(2012\) of 17 December 2012, 2160 \(2014\) and 2161 \(2014\) of 17 June 2014, 2253 \(2015\) of 17 December 2015, 2255 \(2015\) of 21 December 2015 and 2368 \(2017\) of 20 July 2017, and calls upon all States to strengthen their international and regional cooperation to enhance information-sharing, border control, law enforcement and criminal justice to better counter the threat posed by foreign terrorist fighters and returning foreign terrorist fighters in Afghanistan and the region;

11. Expresses its serious concern regarding the presence of terrorist organizations, such as Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) (Da'esh) and its affiliates, in particular ISIL-Khorasan Province, and other terrorist groups, and foreign terrorist fighters, and the increased number of cowardly and heinous terrorist attacks for which they have claimed responsibility, including killings of Afghan nationals, and their deplorable attempts to undermine relations between communities, posing a serious threat to the security of Afghanistan and the countries of the region, commends the progress of the Government of Afghanistan in combating these threats in the country, calls for enhanced regional cooperation in the fight against these groups, and affirms its support for continued efforts in this regard;

12. Condemns in the strongest terms all unlawful acts of violence, intimidation and attacks, including improvised explosive device attacks, suicide attacks, assassinations, including of public figures, abductions, indiscriminate attacks against civilians, violence perpetrated against women and children and sexual and gender-based violence, killings, attacks against individuals, media groups and organs of society engaged in the promotion and protection of universally recognized human rights, attacks against development aid, humanitarian and medical personnel and civilian infrastructure facilities, including schools, health clinics and hospitals, as such, and the targeting of Afghan and international forces, which have a deleterious effect on stabilization and development efforts in Afghanistan, and condemns the use of civilians as human shields, as well as Taliban attacks and acts of international terrorists;

13. Stresses the need for the Government of Afghanistan and the international community to continue to work closely together and to improve coordination in countering such acts, which are threatening peace and stability in Afghanistan and the democratic process, the achievements and the continued implementation of the development process in Afghanistan, as well as humanitarian aid measures, recognizes the achievements of the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces in this regard, and calls upon all Member States, in particular neighbouring countries, to deny those groups any form of sanctuary, freedom of operations, movement, recruitment and financial, material or political support;

14. Welcomes the assumption of full security responsibility by the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces, commends the resilience and courage displayed in this regard, calls upon the international community to provide the support necessary to increase security, including public order, law enforcement, the security of Afghanistan's borders and the preservation of the constitutional rights of Afghan citizens, as well as to provide continued support by training, equipping and contributing to the financing of the Forces to take on the task of securing their country and fighting against terrorism, and underscores the importance of all the Summit Declarations of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on Afghanistan and other relevant agreements with regional and international partners;

15. Also welcomes, in this regard, the presence of the Resolute Support Mission, expresses its appreciation to Member States for having contributed personnel, equipment and other resources to the Mission and for the support provided to the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces by all international partners, in particular by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization through its previous combat and current non-combat missions in Afghanistan, as well as other bilateral training programmes, and encourages further coordination, where appropriate;

16. Further welcomes the commitment of the Government of Afghanistan, with a view to ensuring stability and providing conditions for the effective rule of law and respect for human rights for all, including women's full and equal enjoyment of these rights, to continuing its security sector reform by making the security provision, management and oversight of the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces more effective and accountable, welcomes in this regard the progress being made in the Afghan national security institutions, as presented at the Geneva Conference on Afghanistan, and expresses its appreciation for the support that States have provided to the Forces;

17. Recalls that regional security cooperation plays a key role in maintaining stability in Afghanistan and the region, welcomes the progress achieved by

Afghanistan and regional partners in this regard, calls for further efforts by Afghanistan and regional partners and organizations, including the Shanghai Cooperation Organization, to strengthen their partnership and cooperation, takes note of the discussion related to Afghanistan at the meeting of the Council of Heads of State of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization held in Bishkek on 13 and 14 June 2019, and in this regard also takes note of the meeting of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization-Afghanistan Contact Group held in Bishkek on 19 April 2019;

18. Welcomes the efforts of the United Nations Regional Centre for Preventive Diplomacy for Central Asia to address regional security cooperation, including its holding of a preventive diplomacy academy and cross-border workshop with Afghan participants,

19. Remains deeply concerned about the persistent problem of anti-personnel landmines, explosive remnants of war and improvised explosive devices, welcomes the achievements to date in the implementation of the Mine Action Programme for Afghanistan, aimed at declaring Afghanistan mine-free by 2023, underscores the importance of sustained international assistance, encourages the Government of Afghanistan, with the support of the United Nations and all relevant actors, to continue its efforts to meet its responsibilities under the Convention on the Prohibition of the Use, Stockpiling, Production and Transfer of Anti-Personnel Mines and on Their Destruction,² expresses concern at the use of improvised explosive devices by the Taliban against civilians and the Afghan security forces, and notes the need to enhance coordination and information-sharing between both Member States and the private sector to prevent the flow of improvised explosive device components to the Taliban;

Peace and reconciliation

20. Recognizes that an Afghan-led and Afghan-owned inclusive peace process backed by regional actors, in particular Pakistan, and supported by the international community, is essential for achieving long-term peace and stability in Afghanistan, reiterating its firm commitment to supporting the Government of Afghanistan in its efforts in this regard, and that, to be successful, a political solution must ensure the renunciation of violence and the breaking of all ties to international terrorism, protect the human rights of all, including women, children and persons belonging to minorities, in accordance with international law and as enshrined in the Constitution of Afghanistan, and build a peaceful Afghanistan, with full respect for the implementation of the measures and application of the procedures introduced by the Security Council in its resolutions 1267 \(1999\), 1988 \(2011\), 2082 \(2012\), 2160 \(2014\) and 2255 \(2015\), as well as other relevant resolutions of the Council, calls upon all relevant States, especially neighbouring countries, and international organizations to remain engaged in the Afghan-led and Afghan-owned peace process, and recognizes the impact that terrorist attacks have on the Afghan people, while underlining that such acts should not hinder efforts to achieve a peace settlement;

21. Welcomes the efforts made by the Government of Afghanistan to begin direct negotiations within the framework of a comprehensive peace plan, as laid out in the declaration of the consultative peace loya jirga held from 29 April to 3 May 2019,³ calls upon the Taliban to accept this offer without any preconditions and without the threat of violence, and calls for the resumption of the peace process, for the continuation of the intra-Afghan dialogue and for the start of inclusive direct talks of the Government of Afghanistan and the Taliban, with the aim of agreeing on a political settlement that leads to sustainable peace for the people of Afghanistan;

22. Encourages Afghanistan and Pakistan to enhance their relationship, which could lead to cooperation to combat terrorism effectively and move forward the Afghan-led and Afghan-owned peace process, and to effectively implement the Afghanistan-Pakistan Action Plan for Peace and Solidarity as an important mechanism of cooperation;

23. Recalls that women play a vital role in the peace process, as recognized by the Security Council in its resolution 1325 (2000) of 31 October 2000 and in related resolutions, including resolution 2242 (2015) of 13 October 2015, welcomes steps taken by the Government of Afghanistan in implementing its national action plan on women, peace and security and in enhancing the role of women in the peace process, as manifested in their contribution to the development of the Afghanistan peace and reconciliation strategy, and encourages the Government of Afghanistan to further implement the women and peace and security agenda, including by supporting the full and meaningful participation of women, locally and at the highest level, in peace and transition;

24. Recognizes that there is no purely military solution to ensure the stability of Afghanistan and that sustainable peace can be achieved only through a negotiated political settlement that includes the Government of Afghanistan, calls for an immediate halt to unlawful violence to create an environment conducive to peace negotiations, welcomes the efforts made by the Government of Afghanistan, including the convening of the second meeting of the Kabul Process for Peace and Security Cooperation and the convening of the consultative peace loya jirga, as well as all other ongoing efforts to initiate a peace process in Afghanistan with Afghan-led and Afghan-owned negotiations inclusive of both the Government and civil society at its core, and commends the role of the Ulama of Afghanistan, Pakistan and Indonesia in advancing the peace process by sending a message of peace through the Trilateral Ulama Conference;

25. Calls upon all Afghan, regional and international parties to continue to support these peace efforts to include the effective and meaningful participation of women and to safeguard and further consolidate the achievements with regard to State-building, social, political and economic reforms and the implementation of obligations and commitments relating to fundamental freedoms and human rights in Afghanistan, especially those of women and children;

26. Notes the work of regional and international partners and formats, including the Quadrilateral Coordination Group, the International Contact Group on Afghanistan, the Tashkent dialogue consultations, the Moscow format consultations and the intra-Afghan dialogue, including the dialogues held in Doha and in Moscow, to facilitate Afghan-led and Afghan-owned efforts towards direct peace talks between the Government of Afghanistan and the Taliban, and calls upon all regional and international partners of Afghanistan to continue their efforts, recognizing that success can be achieved only through the unified and close coordination of efforts under the leadership and ownership of the Government of Afghanistan;

Democracy

27. Emphasizes the importance of all parties in Afghanistan working together to achieve a unified, peaceful, democratic and prosperous future for all the people of Afghanistan;

28. Recalls the commitment and welcomes the efforts of the Government of Afghanistan to improving and reforming the electoral process in Afghanistan and the holding of presidential elections on 28 September 2019, condemns in the strongest terms all terrorist activity and violent attacks aimed at disrupting the elections, commends the commitment shown by Afghans in exercising their right to vote and their belief in democracy, emphasizes the important role of the independent Afghan electoral institutions in upholding the integrity of the electoral process, including by clearly communicating their decisions to all stakeholders, urges all stakeholders to support the elections commissioners in delivering an election result that is credible and transparent, and calls upon the Government of Afghanistan and its institutions, including the Independent Election Commission and the Electoral Complaints Commission, to ensure that future elections are credible and transparent by building on the lessons learned in 2019 and continuing to implement the electoral reforms and further technical and operational improvements necessary to strengthen voter trust and confidence;

29. Welcomes the increasingly wide and comprehensive dialogue on the political transition towards strengthening the unity of the Afghan people, and underscores its importance for consolidating democracy and Afghan political stability;

30. Calls upon the Government of Afghanistan to continue to effectively reform the public administration sector in order to implement the rule of law and to ensure good governance and accountability, and welcomes the commitments, efforts and progress made by the Government in this regard;

Rule of law, human rights and good governance

31. Emphasizes that the rule of law, human rights and good governance form the foundation for the achievement of a stable and prosperous Afghanistan;

32. Recalls the constitutional guarantee of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all Afghans, without discrimination of any kind, stresses the need to fully implement the human rights provisions of the Constitution of Afghanistan, in accordance with obligations under applicable international law, in particular those regarding the full enjoyment by women, children, persons with disabilities and persons belonging to ethnic and religious minorities of their human rights, and acknowledges efforts of the Government of Afghanistan in this regard;

33. Recognizes the membership of Afghanistan in the Human Rights Council, and welcomes the commitment and responsibility assumed in upholding and promoting human rights at the national, regional and international levels, within the framework of relevant international human rights instruments to which it is a party;

34. Reiterates its concern at the destructive consequences of violent and terrorist activities, including against persons belonging to ethnic and religious minorities, for the enjoyment of human rights and for the capacity of the Government to ensure human rights and fundamental freedoms for all Afghans, and stresses the need to further promote tolerance and to ensure respect for the right to freedom of expression, including for journalists, and the right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion or belief as enshrined in the Constitution of Afghanistan and the international covenants to which Afghanistan is a party;

35. Emphasizes the necessity of investigating allegations of current and past violations, and stresses the importance of facilitating the provision of efficient and effective remedies to the victims and of bringing the perpetrators to justice in accordance with national and international law;

36. Calls for the full implementation of the Mass Media Law, while noting with concern and condemning the continuing intimidation and violence targeting Afghan journalists, such as cases of abduction and even the killing of journalists by terrorist and violent extremist and criminal groups, and urges that the harassment of and attacks on journalists be investigated by Afghan authorities and that those responsible be brought to justice;

37. Reiterates its unwavering commitment and that of the Government of Afghanistan to the promotion and protection of women's full enjoyment of human rights in Afghanistan, in particular the achievement of equality between men and women, the full and equal participation of women in all spheres of Afghan life, the eradication of sexual and gender-based violence, including against children, the provision of humanitarian responses that are principled and targeted towards the individuals most in need, including by offering psychosocial support and seeking to end all forms of gender-based violence;

38. Commends the achievements and efforts of the Government aimed at increasing women's participation in policymaking and decision-making, countering discrimination and protecting and promoting the equal rights of women and men consistent with its international obligations under the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women⁴ and pursuant to the Constitution of Afghanistan, the National Action Plan for the Women of Afghanistan, the Afghan national action plan on women, peace and security, the Law on the Elimination of Violence against Women and the national strategy to prevent violence against women;

39. Welcomes recent measures taken by the Government of Afghanistan towards the protection of women's and girls' full and equal enjoyment of human rights, including the establishment of a special secretariat within the Afghanistan Independent Human Rights Commission to investigate allegations of harassment of women in government institutions and the appointment of women ambassadors, deputy ministers, human rights commissioners and heads of electoral bodies and a woman Inspector General;

40. Emphasizes the need to ensure respect for the rights of the child and their fundamental freedoms in Afghanistan and to prevent grave human rights violations and abuses against children as a result of the ongoing armed conflict, condemns the continued recruitment and use of child soldiers, including sexual violence and sexual exploitation, recalls the need for the full implementation of the Convention on the Rights of the Child,⁵ its Optional Protocol on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography⁶ and its Optional Protocol on the involvement of children in armed conflict⁷ by all States parties, as well as of Security Council resolution 1612 \(2005\) of 26 July 2005, and all other subsequent resolutions on children and armed conflict, and Council resolutions 1998 \(2011\) of 12 July 2011 and 2286 \(2016\) of 3 May 2016 on attacks against schools and hospitals, in particular by terrorist and violent extremist and criminal groups, commends the Government of Afghanistan for implementing the law on the protection of child rights, adopting a new Penal Code that envisages punishment for the perpetrators of crimes against children, including of bacha bazi, for introducing legislation banning the recruitment and use of child soldiers and for establishing, equipping, staffing, training and providing adequate oversight of local child protection units;

41. Welcomes the progress made in the implementation of the action plan for the prevention of underage recruitment, signed in January 2011, and the annex thereto on children associated with the Afghan National Defence and Security Forces, and of the road map towards compliance, as well as the signing in 2017 of a child protection policy to protect children from the effects of armed conflict, as reflected in the seventh report of the Government of Afghanistan on the implementation of the Joint Action Plan on Children and Armed Conflict, released in April 2019, continues to call for an end to the recruitment and use of children by all parties within all ranks, and stresses the need to refrain from detaining children on national security-related charges and the importance of considering children primarily as victims;

42. Recalls Security Council resolutions 2250 \(2015\) of 9 December 2015 on the maintenance of international peace and security and 2419 \(2018\) of 6 June 2018 on youth, peace and security, in which the Council reaffirmed the important role that youth can play in the prevention and resolution of conflicts, welcomes the appointment of Afghanistan's youth representative to the United Nations, recognizes in this regard the efforts of the Government of Afghanistan in enhancing the representation of youth for the prevention and resolution of conflict, and encourages continued efforts in this regard;

43. Reiterates its appreciation for the anti-corruption commitment made by the Government of Afghanistan, welcomes in this respect the reform efforts of the Government, including the adoption of a law protecting whistle-blowers, the revision of the access to information law, the continuation of reform measures in the civil service through the successful completion of merit-based recruitment for 11,500 teaching positions and 6,500 entry-level civil servant positions in the capital and provinces, the establishment of the National High Council for Rule of Law and Anti-Corruption, the Anti-Corruption Justice Centre and the National Procurement Commission, the adoption of the updated Afghanistan National Strategy for Combating Corruption at the end of 2018, the enactment of the revised Penal Code and the anti-corruption law of 2018 and the finalization of anti-corruption action plans for various ministries as measures taken by the Government to implement its comprehensive reform agenda, strengthen governance and achieve a more effective, accountable and transparent administration at the national, provincial and local levels of government, takes note in this regard of the progress made thus far against the benchmarks of its comprehensive reform agenda presented and endorsed at the third Senior Officials Meeting and at the Geneva Conference on Afghanistan, urges the Government of Afghanistan to take continued decisive action and accelerate implementation, promote the rule of law and address impunity for corruption, and establish a more effective, accountable and transparent administration at the national, provincial and local levels of government in order to create conditions for sustained future peace;

44. Calls upon the international community to support the efforts of Afghanistan to meet governance objectives in this regard;

Counter-narcotics

45. Welcomes the efforts of the Government of Afghanistan in fighting drug production in Afghanistan, including recent law enforcement operations aimed at seizing, dismantling and destroying drug stockpiles and laboratories, as reflected in the report of the Secretary-General,⁸ encourages international and regional cooperation with Afghanistan in its sustained efforts to address illicit drug production and trafficking, recognizes the threat posed by illicit drug production, trade and trafficking to international peace and stability in different regions of the world, and the important role played by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in this regard, expresses its continued deep concern at the serious harm that opium cultivation, production and trafficking continue to cause to the security, development and governance of Afghanistan, as well as to the region and beyond, and that such activities can also significantly contribute to the financial resources of terrorist
