The UN has procured and provided a substantial package of essential COVID-19 medical and laboratory supplies and equipment. This includes some items listed below.

- 98 Ventilators
- 37.2M Masks
- 1,778 Oxygen Concentrator Machines
- 19 PCR Machines
- 1,581 RNA Extraction Kits

The graph indicates an upward trend in the number of cases, which could result in a large second wave if Non-pharmaceutical Interventions (NPIs) are not maintained.

Afghanistan needs continued solidarity from the international community to support preparedness and ongoing recovery.

RAISING AWARENESS

- 270,000+ Health workers and mobilisers oriented on delivering preventative messages
- 1,600 TV spots broadcast
- 144,000 Radio spots broadcast
- 1,400+ Billboards placed
- 9.4M Posters and brochures distributed
- 68,000 Community awareness sessions conducted
- 1.9M People reached through social media

The UN has 23 laboratories established and supported across 22 provinces.

The UN has trained 1,400+ Billboards placed.

The graph indicates an upward trend in the number of cases, which could result in a large second wave if Non-pharmaceutical Interventions (NPIs) are not maintained.

Afghanistan needs continued solidarity from the international community to support preparedness and ongoing recovery.